Attachment 4: Compiled Matrix of Indicators used by Agencies Interviewed

Program		Casey Family Programs	Gates Foundation CAT Programs	Grantee		Unlimited	City of Seattle Community Technology Program	United Way/Win211	WorkForce Development Council of Seattle/King County	Youth Force (TechJobs.org)
Outco	mes
Emp	oloyment / Economic
	Career planning skills	Х	X		Х	Х				X
	Learn software programs for job skill development
	Learn how to write a resume
	Housing/Money management skills	Х	X		Х
	Work life skills	X	X		Х		Х			X
Aca	demic skills and literacy
	Improve school performance, grades			X
	Learn to speak and write in English
	Educational attainment		X	X			Х
	Language skills		X				Х
	Technology skills						X
	Information literacy skills		X
	Computer basics
	Database fundamentals
	Presentation fundamentals
	Wordprocessing fundamentals
Soci	ial Inclusion and personal growth
	Social relationship skills	X	X	Х		Х	Х			X
	Gain confidence in one's ability to learn Connect and take action in one's community
	Constructive engagement with others			X
	Civic engagement			X
	Ethical behavior			X
Inde	pendence
	Self care skills	X	X	X
	Change in self-sufficiency standard								Х
	Gain economic independence - find an affordable place to live
	Learn adaptive technology to enable physical independence
	Daily living skills	X		X			X
Acc	ess to Information and resources
	Find jobs and housing using the Internet
	Find services and resources using the Internet
Con	munication
	Remain in contact with family (long distance) using e-mail
	Be active in local community associations and organizations using e-mail and the Internet									